Trade Balance Reveals U. S. Prosperity

IMPORTS HIT NEW HIGH MARK

Spending Spree of America Costs $150,000,000 Over Export Total

By WM. K. HUTCHINSON
For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—American industry is facing an unfavorable world trade balance of approximately $150,000,000, the department of commerce revealed today in a report of the foreign trade commission.

The preponderance of imports over exports, chiefly to South American countries, resulted in the unfavorable total, it was said. The figures, however, were taken to indicate a healthy condition in American industry because the increased imports were comprised chiefly of raw materials to be used in manufacturing finished products for foreign as well as home consumption.

U. S. Making Goods

Increased importation of raw materials also were reported to indicate an increased activity and enlargement in American manufacturing. Losses in exports were accredited principally to the decreased buying power of several European nations.

Although the world trade balance was against American merchants, commerce with Europe was heavily in favor of the United States. The unfavorable total was caused by negligible exports to nations outside Europe.

Wins Over Competitors

The United States won against all European competitors, it was shown, because of the poor condition of their local industries and the better grade of goods offered by American merchants. The balance of European trade was won, too, by American industry, despite the millions of dollars spent abroad by American tourists without return.

American trade with Europe from January to August this year totaled almost $1,800,000,000, it was estimated. Of this amount more than a billion dollars represented American exports shipped to market abroad. The remainder—about $750,000,000—totalled the amount of European products purchased for consumption in this country. Imports from Europe, incidentally, are constantly increasing, the report showed, and for the first six months of 1923 were 40 per cent higher than in the same period of 1922.

PONZI PAYS OUT MILLION MORE

Hanover Trust Company to Hold Sack for Many Poor Investors

BOSTON, Aug. 29.—Investors in Charles Ponzi's "Get rich quick scheme" will receive more than a million dollars additional through the petition of former Supreme Court Justice Chase, which was made public today.

Judge Chase sat as master in a suit of Ponzi trustees against the Hanover Trust company, which found that the Hanover Trust company cannot obtain a $441,778 representing an overdraft in Ponzi's account. The full bench of the supreme court is to pass on Judge Chase's report.

Head-on Crash May Bring Death to Two

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—Dragged 150 feet in their wrecked automobile, which was smashed by the impact of a head-on collision with a street car at Whittier boulevard and San Antonio street early today, George Boras, 29, and Miss Columbia Tonka received injuries from which they may die. According to witnesses, Boras, apparently blinded by fog, swerved his machine in front of the street car. The automobile was turned over, twisted and broken, while it was pushed 150 feet further down the track. Both of the injured were rushed to the receiving hospital, where it was said they had little chance for recovery.

Razorback Hog Trees Hunters Talking to Girl

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., Aug. 29.—Edwin Lartigue and Robert Arblin, who just returned from a deer hunt in the mountains, are off nimrodizing for life, it was revealed today by friends.

They were talking to a comely farmer's daughter when an irate razorback hog pounced their dog and treed all three of them until the farmer's wife, armed with a wet mop, saved the day. The guns were not loaded, acquaintances volunteered.

AIR IRON MEN TO TRY FOR NEW GOAL

Pilots Smith and Richter, Record Breakers, Plan Canada-Mexico Hop

By WILLIAM PARKER
For International News Service

ROCKWELL FIELD, SAN DIEGO, Aug. 29.—With only their allotted eight hours of sleep after flying continuously for 37 hours and being awake for more than 40 hours, Captain Lowell H. Smith and Lieutenant J. Richter were in the hangar at the United States army flying field here at 8 o'clock this morning.

They were examining the De Havilland bombing plane in which late yesterday they broke the world's record for endurance flying. Except for a slight stiffness of the joints and muscles, caused by the crowded quarters they occupied in the plane, Smith and Richter were as active today as before their epochal flight.

Here Are Figures

The two flyers landed at Rockwell field at 6:12 p. m. last night. The official figures as given by Howard E. Morin, observer for the American Aeronautical association, were: 5300 kilometers, 3292.26 miles; time, 37 hours 15 minutes 14.4 seconds. By 5:10 p. m. Smith and Richter had lowered the flight endurance record which Lieutenants Kelly and Macready had previously made in Ohio.

The only physical effect evident to the two men when they came to earth was their inability to hear. This, Captain Smith explained later, was caused by the constant roar of the air and the whistling of the wires. He could, though, he said, hear the motor at all times, and this momentary deafness was not so pronounced as when he fell in his recent endurance flight.

Not Even Sleepy After turning the big plane over to mechanics, the men went to their quarters, bathed, shaved and were dinner guests later in the evening of their fellow officers.

When at 9 o'clock Major Henry Arnold, commander at Rockwell field, suggested they should go to bed, Smith said he was not sleepy and Richter echoed his words. Considerable difficulty was experienced (Continued on Page 8)

War Over Klan Near In Legion Convention

EUREKA, Aug. 29.—First hostilities are expected today at the state convention of the American Legion here when certain factions will introduce resolutions supporting the Ku Klux Klan, according to the belief of certain members.

Among the other resolutions slated for introduction at the first business session today is one Los Angeles delegates are said to endorse, antagonistic to the Boulder creek dam proposition on the Colorado river. Election of officers is scheduled for tomorrow's session.

BRUTAL KILLER HELD

SANDUSKY, Ohio, Aug. 29.—James Brady, 34, beat his wife into unconsciousness with a hammer and then cut her throat with a razor, according to police who arrested him for murder. He was arrested as he was leaving the house. Mrs. Brady filed suit for divorce yesterday.

RELIEF SEEN IN RUHR CRISIS

Germany's Decision to Stop Passive Resistance Aids Settlement

LONDON, Aug. 29.—British officials today hailed with intense relief a report from Berlin that the German government has decided to give up passive resistance in the Ruhr, thus removing the chief obstacle in the way of a reparations settlement with France.

It is understood that the German decision to cease passive resistance was reached after a conference between Chancellor Stresemann and leaders of the Rhineland industrialists, including Hugo Stinnes. The Germans are hopeful that the French will now lift the embargo upon traffic between occupied and unoccupied Germany. Treasury experts who studied the Belgian reparations note, found great variation between the communication and the proposal made by London. There was deep disappointment over the failure of Belgium to support the British suggestion of an international commission to fix Germany's capacity for payment.

Ruhr Workers May Oppose Decision

ESSEN, Aug. 29.—German trade union executives in the Ruhr met today and adopted a resolution stating they have the right "to exert the utmost pressure upon the government at Berlin." The action of the Ruhr union leaders indicates the workers may oppose the reported decision of the German government to end passive resistance against Franco-Belgian occupation of the Ruhr.

Italy and Greece Near Breaking Point

ROME, Aug. 29.—Relations between Italy and Greece were strained nearly to the breaking point today by the assassination of General Teleini and other members of the Italian mission which was negotiating realignment of the Graeco-Albanian frontier.

Bitter comment is appearing in the press. The Italian minister at Athens was instructed to demand punishment of the assassins.

Although Athens reported the crime was due to brigands, Italian newspapers reported it took place close to a Greek military outpost, which is held to be a suspicious circumstance.

Premier Mussolini conferred with foreign office and military officials. Later communications were sent to the Italian ambassadors at London and Paris.

Threats to Mine Men Start Federal Hunt

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—Federal authorities are today searching for the writers of anonymous letters threatening officials of the Argonaut mine, center of a nation's interest one year ago when the lives of 47 miners were snuffed out in a disastrous fire.

Belief entertained at that time that the blaze was of incendiary origin has been strengthened by the receipt of the letters, it is understood.

Mine officials are inclined to disprove the opinion expressed by certain miners that William Fessel, famous "mystery miner" whose body was not found with those of the other victims, is today alive.

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—Toadstool poisonings among famished Germans grew today. Four members of a carpenter's family died while the mother and two surviving children are in critical condition, not expected to live. Toadstools, eaten by mistake for mushrooms, have caused twenty-two deaths in two days.

Japan Plays in Role of Friend To China Now!

PEKING, Aug. 29.—Japan appeared today in the role of friends of China. Japan is attempting to mediate between China and the foreign powers to prevent the outside nations assuming control of Chinese railways. Proposals for control of the Chinese railways came from Great Britain, but Japan is opposing on the ground that it would violate Chinese sovereignty.

FOOD MAKES CHANGE IN JAPANESE

American Delicacies Replace Diet of Rice and Fish, Visitor Reveals

ACQUIRING a taste for a foreign food and particularly American delicacies, the Japanese people are becoming stronger and more aggressive, according to George E. Emanuel, who, with Mrs. Emanuel, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Philip of 650 North Kenwood street, and now preparing to return to the Orient.

This revelation by one of the few Americans to have lived long in the land of the mikado perhaps accounts for their progress on the Pacific coast, for the Japanese is lakadaiical on a diet of rice and fish, according to the visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel formerly resided in Los Angeles. Mr. Emanuel has for some time been the representative in Japan of Getz Brothers of San Francisco. They expect to leave Friday for San Francisco, where their three children, George Frederick, Jr., Barbara and Mason, are stopping with relatives. Later they will proceed to Vancouver, where they expect to embark on one of the Canadian Pacific liners in November upon their return trip to Kobe.

Sees Growth Here

Commenting on the growth of Glendale since he was here twelve years ago, Mr. Emanuel expressed his opinion that it has been quite remarkable. He added that a great deal of building is going on all the time in Japan, too. Residences there are of the very flimsiest construction, he stated, that construction work is very slow and that the building of the average sized bungalow would take six or eight workmen at least six months.

The eight-hour day does not exist in Japan. Workmen frequently arrive on the job at 6 o'clock in the morning. However, they begin their work by enjoying a smoke and a good rest until about 7:30. At 10 o'clock they pause for another smoke and about 11:30 a. m. they "clock off" work for lunch and a nap. The afternoon, also, is punctuated with several recesses, all of which vary in length, according to the temperament of the workman.

Japanese Law Lord to Be Silent on Wilson

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 29.—Lord Birkenhead, former chancellor of Great Britain, who arrived in Minneapolis today to attend the sessions of the American Bar association, said he would not repeat on the floor of the meeting, the charges against Woodrow Wilson he made recently in the east, which caused former Secretary of War Henry Breckenridge to demand that Birkenhead be denied privilege of addressing the lawyers.

In a letter to John W. Davis, president of the bar association, Breckenridge declared that Birkenhead had "gone beyond all bounds" in attacking the foreign policy of President Wilson, and should not be permitted to speak at the convention here.

'ANGEL CHILD' GLENDALE'S PROBLEM

300 Pupils Are Expected to Enter High School Here From Neighbor City

THE Glendale union high school next term is expected to care for between 200 and 300 students from Los Angeles.

Eagle Rock students living west of Windemere and College View avenues next term will be permitted to attend the local High School.

Principal George U. Moysie announced this fact this morning adding that a satisfactory arrangement to cover the extra expense has been agreed upon between the local board of trustees and the Los Angeles Board of Education.

Presents Big Problem

Whether or not to prohibit students living in the Alhambra tract from attending the local High School has been a puzzling problem. Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, superintendent of the Los Angeles school system, was much surprised when informed sixty students from this district last year were in attendance at Glendale Union High school. Indeed, Los Angeles thinks of that section as Glendale.

The local board has offered to receive these students upon the same terms as those from Eagle Rock. This suggestion that the expenses incurred should be paid has not been agreed upon yet by the Los Angeles Board of Education. However, it is expected that it will do so.

Although the local school will be crowded until the new plant is completed, Mr. Moysie believes that the problem should be regarded from the double standpoint of what is best for the pupils and Glendale. He does not believe it wise for Glendale to antagonize Los Angeles in any manner at this time if it can be avoided.

However, 300 students would fill a good-sized high school and, inasmuch as Los Angeles will have to pay tuition here, it seems that a wise move will be to build a high school in Eagle Rock as soon as possible, officials conclude.

HARDING MEMORIAL STAMP PRINTED IN BLACK WILL BE SOLD HERE SHORTLY

ANNOUNCEMENT of the issue of the new Harding memorial stamp has been received by Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson in a communication from the department at Washington, and within a few days the new stamp will be placed on sale at this and other offices, he stated today.

The stamp will be issued only in the 2 cent denomination and will only be sold for a limited period, possibly for not more than ninety days, it is believed, being first placed on sale at Marion, Ohio, President Harding's home town, on September 1.

The portrait of the late president is printed in black ink in an oval enclosed in a panel supported by acanthus scrolls. Above the portrait is a curved panel with the words "United States Postage" in capitals; in the upper left hand corner the year of Harding's birth, 1865, is shown, with the year of his death, 1923, in the upper right hand corner. The stamp is surrounded by a plain black border to typify the mourning of the nation in the loss of its leader.

Postmaster Jackson says that the limited issue will result in the Harding memorial stamp being eagerly sought and preserved by stamp collectors all over the world.

PETITION TO ASK WIDER BROADWAY

Ten-Foot Set-back Will Be Asked of City Council By Association

At last night's meeting of the West Broadway Improvement association, held in the real estate office of O. M. Newby, president, 107 South Central avenue, petitions for the ten-foot setback line on both sides of West Broadway, from Central avenue to San Fernando road, were turned in and authorization given to go before the City Council with the matter.

A committee will therefore present to the councilmen at their meeting on Thursday night a request that this setback line be established, states Mr. Newby.

A report from the committee on ornamental lights was also heard at last night's session, following which a resolution was adopted recommending the same type of metal standards of the two-light type as those on Central avenue, East Broadway and Glendale avenue.

Petitions for these standards will at once be prepared and circulated among the property owners, according to Mr. Newby.

Thieves Loot Safe in L. A. Firm's Office

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—Gaining entrance through a rear window robbers last night took an undetermined amount of loot from the safe of the A. R. Graham Supply company, sash and door manufacturers, on Whittier boulevard, according to a report to the sheriff's office today.

The inner door of the safe had been opened with a jimmy. The first door of the safe had been left open last night because the cashier lacked the combination, the report stated.

Improvement Slow in Kirkwood's Condition

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—No definite improvement was noted today in the condition of James Kirkwood, film actor, and husband of Lila Lee, film actress, rendered unconscious Saturday when he was thrown from a horse. Kirkwood has not fully regained his senses.

According to his physicians a slight paralysis of the left side set in yesterday. However, the doctors agree this condition is only temporary and was caused by the severe blow to the actor's head.

Kirkwood is suffering from a basal fracture of the skull and while he appears to regain consciousness at times he immediately sinks back into a stupor.

American Princess Is Reported Near Death

LONDON, Aug. 29.—Despite secrecy of the family, it was learned this evening that Princess Anastasia of Greece has taken a turn for the worse and her condition is most serious. Members of the household refused to reveal the cause of her illness.

There was a rumor that the princess was dying. Her heart action was very weak and she was unconscious. Specialists were called into consultation. Prince Christopher is with his wife.

Before her marriage into the Greek royal family, the princess was Mrs. William Leeds of Cleveland, Ohio, and New York.

PINCHOT HAS PEACE PLAN READY TO SUBMIT

Wilkesbarre Priest Confers With Governor as Lines Tighten for Battle

By GEO. E. DURNO
For International News Service

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 29.—The plan by which Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania hopes to avert the anthracite coal strike, now scheduled for Friday midnight, will be submitted to a joint meeting of mine union heads and operator representatives at 6 o'clock tonight, the governor announced at noon.

The governor's plan, which will be a "definite set of proposals" which it has been learned, can be accepted or rejected by either side without extended meetings, has already been drafted.

The plan will be held secret until the hour of meeting of the joint workers with Governor Pinchot, a number of government experts and leaders in coal field districts.

Confers With Governor

Father J. J. Curren of Wilkesbarre, who has been in close touch with the miners for many years, conferred with the governor this morning.

John L. Lewis, international president of the union, who came from Philadelphia this morning, is expected to attend the 6 o'clock meeting at the head of the minor delegation.

The miners and operators both professed ignorance of the nature of the proposals to be submitted to them today.

Ready to Walkout

While admitting that the Pinchot parley or some other agency might succeed in averting the strike, Lewis today went ahead with plans as if a walk-out were a certainty.

Lewis said this morning that "everything is in readiness for the strike. The strike order issued last Saturday has been promulgated throughout every union in the three anthracite districts."

The strike finds the miners financially prepared, Lewis declared. He said resources were available from three-fourths of the union—the international treasury of the United Mine Workers of America, treasuries of three anthracite districts and treasuries of approximately 500 local unions.

Other available sources of finances, he explained, would be the 500,000 workers in the bituminous fields who could be appealed to in case of necessity.

SOVIET STIRRING GERMAN REVOLT

Army and Workers in Russia to Donate Services For Red War on France

By JOHN L. SPIVAK
For International News Service

MOSCOW, Aug. 29.—The Russian soviet unanimously adopted a resolution appealing to the army and workers to support a red revolution in Germany by donations "and otherwise."

The resolution says: "If Germany is controlled by France, it will mean a new campaign against Russia."

The document appeals to workers in all countries throughout the world to mobilize their strength and hamper interference with Germany's home affairs. All the propaganda committees of the international labor unions are summoned into a special conference to consider the German situation.

The Third Internationale is appealing to the Second Internationale to join in conference with Moscow not later than September 1, to organize aid for German communists.

This is the first active step on the part of the Russians to precipitate a red uprising in Germany. Heretofore the assistance has been in the nature of moral support.

Officials of the Third Internationale said they desired to aid German workers and ministers to prevent the looming capitalistic war.

The appeal asserts that a crisis is apparent.

Scout Breakfast
Girl Scouts of Troop Four gathered at the Golden Spanish Cafe Sunday morning for breakfast. The banquet table was decorated with flags and red roses in honor of "Red Rose" troop, and in the center stood a tiny kewpie girl scout in regulation uniform. Margaret Brennan and Beatrice Smith were the committee in charge of the affair, which proved a very happy one. Between courses stories were told and songs sung by the girls, who voted it one of the finest meetings of the year. Crosses were laid for the captain, Margaret Sharpe, Corporal Genevieve Burr, 1st Patrol Leader Dorothy Chappius, Second Patrol Leader Ruth Berndt, Third Patrol Leader Margaret Brennan, and the following scouts: Virginia Baudino, Catherine Doll, Helen H. Cole, Madeline Guglielmino, Rose Bagley, La Verne Wolfram, Beatrice Smith, Mildred Bowler, Margaret Clark, Genevieve Gannon, Ruth Houle, Anna Ratigan, Mary Virginia Bryan, Vivian Russell, Mary Vandeverre and Alice Brennan.

Six Years Old
Mrs. A. D. Newell of 308 North Central avenue arranged a jolly children's party Monday to celebrate the sixth birthday of her little daughter June.

There were ten kiddies to enjoy the afternoon of games and music and later a birthday luncheon.

Shades of pink were seen in the pretty table decorations. Tiny Cecil Brunner rosebuds, cunning baskets filled with candies, Mother Goose placecards and vari-colored balloons delighted the hearts of the little honoree and guests. Of course, the real feature was the white birthday cake with six pink candles resting in tiny rosebud holders, forming the table centerpiece.

Mrs. Newell was assisted in entertaining the children by Miss Vera Denham and Mrs. J. Smith. The guests were Marjorie Gorman, Lillian Louise Smalley, Gretchen Lord, Beatrice and Harriet Seidman, Alberta Saunders, Robert Clappett and Howard Gorman.

DEATHS—FUNERALS
MRS. KATE S. FRALICH
Glendale friends will be grieved to learn of the death this morning, Wednesday, August 29, 1923, of Mrs. Kate S. Fralich of 3364 Glendale boulevard, who was almost 85 years of age. Mrs. Fralich was the wife of the late Edmund C. Fralich. At one time they resided in Glendale. Mrs. Fralich had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Milton I. Baird, for the past seven years. She came to California sixteen years ago from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where she was born November 11, 1838. Other surviving relatives are two sons, William C. Fralich of San Francisco, and Charles W. Fralich of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services will be held at the residence at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, August 31, 1923, under the direction of Kiefer and Eyerick. The body will be shipped to Pittsburgh for interment.

Garden Wedding
Miss Maurine Elizabeth Baker and Joseph B. Maier were married last night, Tuesday, August 28, 1923, at a garden ceremony taking place at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rhea Baker at 331 North Maryland avenue. Dr. J. G. Kennedy, pastor of the Occidental United Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, former pastor and a friend of the bride's family in Santa Ana, was the officiant. There were thirty-five relatives and intimate friends in attendance.

With a bright moon shining the garden presented an ideal setting for the wedding. Electric lights with artistic rose-colored shades lighted the lawn. A bower of greenery with tall baskets of rose-colored dahlias and blue larkspur on either side, was arranged in one corner of the garden, and it was here that the bridal party stood during the ceremony.

Miss Agnes Sparklin of Hollywood and Mrs. Bruce Brown of Los Angeles, a girlhood friend of the bride, gave a short program of bridal music before the ceremony. Miss Sparklin accompanied by Mrs. Brown, sang "O Promise Me." For the entrance of the bridal party Mrs. Brown played the Lohengrin Wedding March.

Miss Baker's two bridesmaids entered first. They were Miss Lela Mae Heil of Orange, gown in turquoise satin and silver and carrying an arm shower of rose pink sweetpeas; and Miss Marie Maier, a sister of the groom, wearing pink satin and silver and also carrying rose pink sweetpeas.

These maids were followed by the bride's sister, Miss Phyllis Baker, who attended as maid of honor. She wore peach brocaded satin and silver and carried Los Angeles rosebuds and maidenhair fern.

SUCCESSFUL MEN DIRECT HOSPITAL

Glendale Sanitarium Personnel Second to None; Loyal Staff in Charge

The success that has attended the work of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital since its foundation is directly attributed to the calibre of the men and women who have been chosen to direct its affairs and to superintend the various departments of the institution. The executive heads of the institution today measure up to the high standards that have always been maintained.

The direction of the business end of the work is in the hands of C. E. Kimlin, business manager, a man who ranks high in the commercial life of the city, and who is ably supported by a board of directors chosen from among the ablest and most competent members of the denomination that stands behind the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital.

Bears High Reputation
Heading the medical and surgical staff is Dr. Henry G. Westphal, a man who keeps constantly abreast of the march of progress in the science of medicine, and to whose efforts is largely due the reputation that the institution bears today all over the United States in the treatment of human ills. Dr. Westphal is loyally supported by a staff of physicians and surgeons who are rated as second to none in their chosen profession, men whose one aim is to place the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital on the highest plane of efficiency.

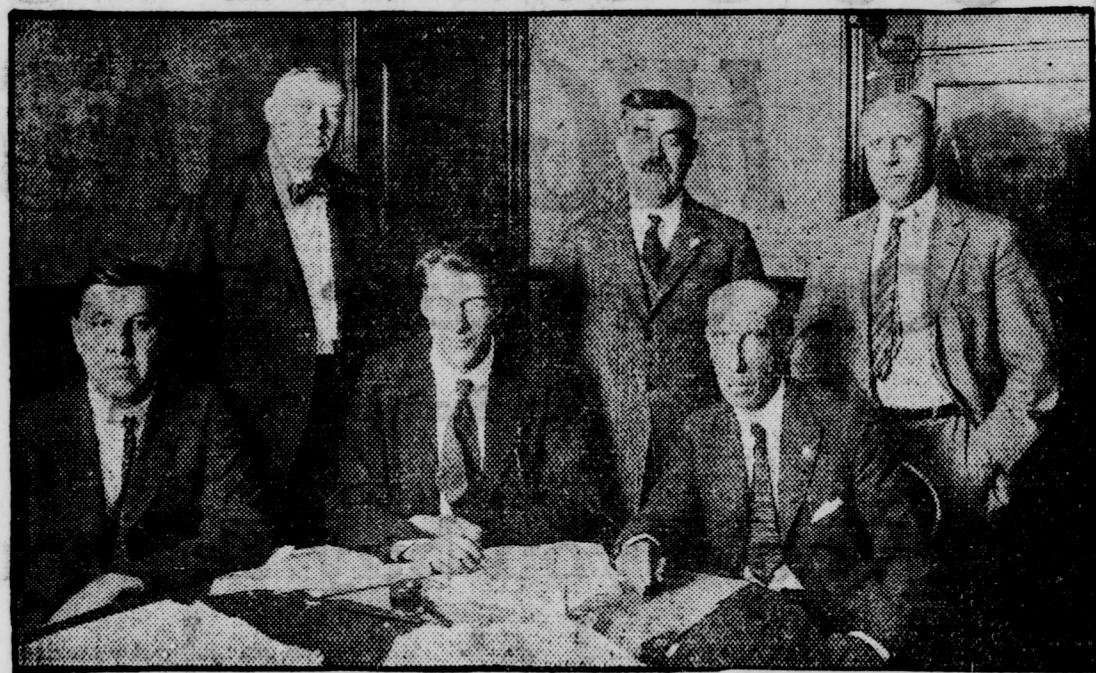

The nursing staff, which is directed by Mrs. Daisy D. Harris, R. N., is one of the most capable to be found in any hospital in the country, and the high professional and ethical standards maintained in the instruction of the student nurses who are graduated from the sanitarium every year earn for these graduates positions of trust and responsibility in any nursing institution where they may be employed.

COVERED WAGON GLENDALE'S NIGHT

September 11 Set Aside for Local People to See Super Spectacle

Arrangements were completed today between George A. Boyer, exploitation manager and excursion agent for Sid Grauman's Egyptian theatre in Hollywood, by which Tuesday, September 11, has been set aside as Glendale night to permit residents of this city to witness the performance of "The Covered Wagon," the motion picture that has been setting new standards in film production since it was first presented. "The Covered Wagon" is now running to capacity houses in the Hollywood establishment, and it is predicted that the same condition will prevail at least until the first of next year.

Special arrangements will be made, Mr. Boyer states, with the Pacific Electric to run trains from Glendale to the doors of the theatre, permitting the people of Glendale to make the trip without any change, and reserved seat tickets will be placed on sale in the office of The Glendale Evening News, so that those who desire to see this performance on Glendale night may secure their tickets without the difficulty attending on going to Los Angeles to secure them. A block of the best seats in the house will be set aside on this night for Glendale people, and they will be sold at The Glendale Evening News.

Mr. Boyer was accompanied to Glendale by Chief Green Pine, Squaw Red Wing and a papoose, Bright Eyes, whose regalia attracted more than a little comment as they walked the streets of Glendale. Red Wing was especially notable in a cape that literally covered with elk's teeth, and the members of the B. P. O. E. who encountered her on the street with difficulty restrained themselves from giving her the high sign until they remembered that women are not admitted to the order.

RENTS CLIMB IN AMERICAN CITIES

Living Quarters Now Cost 63.4 Per Cent More Than Before World War

By JACK CARBERRY
For International News Service
NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Rents for the first six months of 1923 continued to go skyward.

The $50-a-month house of 1914 is bringing $78.50 in New York, $98.85 in Los Angeles, $84.80 in Baltimore, $85 in Buffalo, $80 in Pittsburgh, $96 in Chicago, the same in Detroit, $86 in Cleveland, $87 in St. Louis, $81 in Seattle and $92.50 in Denver.

Since January 1, 1923, New York tenements have increased their rents 3.7 per cent, the smallest boost of any of the nation's larger cities. Detroit rents have jumped 10 per cent—the highest figure.

Other cities to show increases during the first half of the present year, according to figures just made public by the Department of Labor, are:

Baltimore, 4.2; Boston, 5.8; Buffalo, 5.8; Chicago, 4.7; Cleveland, 4.2; Philadelphia, 8.5; San Francisco and Oakland, 4; Cincinnati, 9.7, and St. Louis, 8.9.

Some Rentals Lower

While these cities have been increasing the burden of the rent-payer, Kansas City, Memphis, Portland, Ore., Minneapolis, Norfolk, Mobile, Jacksonville, Houston and Portland, Maine, have cut the costs—slightly, the department explains, but none the less recorded a cut.

The figures of the department show that there is an abundance of costly homes in all cities of the country—apartments renting from $75 to $150 a month.

However, due to the present high building costs, there has been but little construction of the cheaper class homes throughout the nation, and the poorer masses are in reality paying 100 per cent more in 1923 than in the pre-war period. The $20 and $30-a-month home has almost completely disappeared, the department's figures show.

Food Stays Up

The same report shows that food costs have mounted 44.3 per cent throughout the nation since the pre-war figures were compiled by the department.

Clothing is 74.9 per cent higher today than in 1914.

Fuel and light have jumped 80.6 per cent.

Furniture heads the list, increasing 122 per cent.

The national rent increase for the war and post-war period is 63.4 per cent, the report shows.

Combining rent, food, clothing, fuel and furniture, the living cost is 57 per cent higher today than before the war.

This, the report shows, is a marked decrease from the average increase as exhibited at the same period last year, and, with the exception of rents, which appear to continue skyrocketing, speaks, it is believed, of a steady return to a normal condition of prosperity.

Earth Shivering Like Jelly, Savant Claims

LONDON, Aug. 29.—That the earth is not rotating as a rigid body, but that some parts of its surface are moving relatively to other parts is the startling suggestion put forward by Professor W. de Sitter, of the University of Dreyden.

Mother Earth, in fact, says de Sitter, is behaving as if it were a jelly-like substance instead of a sphere as rigid as steel.

Technically, it follows that the distance between various points on the earth's surface is moving slightly. In support of de Sitter's contention it is maintained that wireless time-signals exchanged recently between various observatories, have shown discrepancies on occasions reaching as much as several tenths of a second.

Commenting on Professor de Sitter's observations, "Nature" remarks that similar fluctuations in recent years have also been noticed on the moon; in fact, says the paper, something very queer is happening in the whole solar system, even the sun seeming to be affected.

Oriental Suspicion Delays Health Worker

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Oriental suspicion can't be allayed by Occidental frankness. In fact, the more the frankness the more the suspicion, indicates Dr. W. W. Peter, a director of the American Health association, now serving with the Council on Health Education, Shanghai, China.

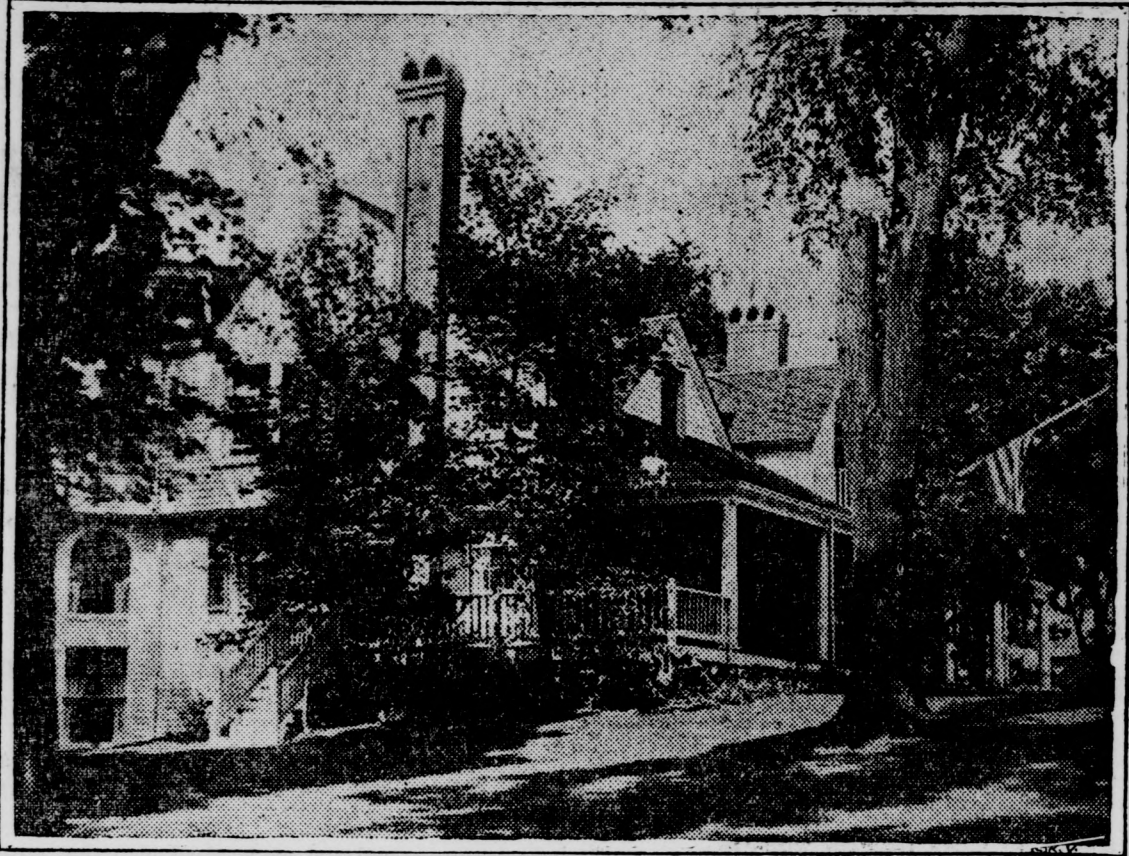

In a letter to the New York office, Dr. Peter told how he coaxed, pleaded and cajoled to be taken aboard a small Japanese cargo boat from Singapore to Shanghai, after missing the regular steamer. But the Orientals' suspicion increased as he grew more importunate. Ultimately they decided he must be wanted by the police, he was so anxious to depart.

He finally arranged for the trip on an Italian cargo boat.

U. S. FAVORED IN SEAPLANE EVENT

Britain to Defend Schneider Cup in International Races at Cowes

COWES, Eng., Aug. 29.—Two hundred miles an hour is the speed which, it is expected, will be attained by seaplanes on September 27 and 28, when Britain faces international rivals for the Schneider Cup.

All four of the American officers who have arrived, and who will fly government machines, expect to attain this speed. If they do, then the cup will leave Britain speedily.

Last year the cup was won by the Napier-engined seaplane Sea Lion II. Piloted by Captain Baird, her maximum speed was 145.7 miles per hour, a rate which will stand no chance on the forthcoming occasion. Against the American service machines, with engines ranging from 240 to 650 horsepower and including two Curtiss engines of about 400 horsepower, the British machines appear to stand little chance.

Eleven Entries Race

In all there will be eleven machines taking part—three British, three American, three French and two Italian. The course decided upon is from the point of Cowes down to Selsey, along the front of Southern, turning at the South Parade Pier and back to Cowes. The course of 37.2 nautical miles is covered five times to make a total racing distance of 186 nautical miles.

The Italian machines will start first, and, at intervals of fifteen minutes, will be followed by the machines of America, Great Britain and France.

British entrants will be: The supermarine Sea Lion II, which won the race last year.

A new machine that is being constructed by the Blackburn Aeroplane company of Leeds.

A Sopwith machine being constructed by the Hawker company. Ten years have passed since the Schneider cup was inaugurated, and the reappearance of a Sopwith entry is interesting, for it was on a Sopwith seaplane, at Monaco, that the race was first won.

Test Is Difficult

The competition is a very difficult one. It includes, in addition to the race, a "navigation test." On September 27 the machines are to take off from the water, alight twice and taxi on the water for about half a mile at a maximum speed of twelve nautical miles per hour.

After this they are required to fly back to the starting base and remain at special moorings, without anyone on board, for six hours. If they cannot remain aloft for this period they are out of the race.

There is much speculation as to how the American machines will stand the navigational test; if they come through successfully the speed test will be a wonderful race.

WEDDING'S DELAY SPEEDS FORTUNE

Oklahoma Heiress Profits by Waiting for Propitious Date for Marriage

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 29.—Fortune smiles today upon Mrs. Lottie Taylor of this city, who is heiress to a small fortune and is engaged to the man "who loves me for myself alone."

L. W. Harrel of Perkins, Okla., grocer, only a few days ago asked Mrs. Taylor for her hand and heart. She had no money and had never dreamed she would have any considerable amount. Instead of marrying at once, however, they decided they would wait until Mrs. Taylor could dispose of her rooming house and then move to Perkins.

The delay was fortunate. Just a few days later came word from Shreveport, La., telling of a $65,000 estate willed to Mrs. Taylor and her two children—Reece, aged 14, and Hattie Mae, 11, by her father, who had made the fortune in oil unknown to her.

Wills sometimes have queer provisions, and this one was no exception.

It stipulated that Mrs. Taylor, who had been a widow for ten years, would receive $35,000 of the estate. In case of remarriage prior to the death of her father, however, the $35,000 would not be forthcoming until Reece, the son, had reached the age of 18—four more years.

Steel Workers Favor 8-Hour Working Day

GARY, Ind., Aug. 29.—Workers in local steel mills—and their families—hail with joy the gradual abandonment of the 12-hour day in favor of the 8-hour shift.

While the change will not be made all at once, effects of the shorter work period already are manifest here.

Hitherto long hours of daily toil have called for long hours of sleep and a minimum of home life.

Each night now finds many a mother with the children grouped around "Daddy." To many heads of families these evenings are the first in years that permitted them to slip into an easy chair, put slippers on and rest a bit before piling into bed to prepare for "tomorrow."

Others who will work out at the Glendale Union High school gymnasium Thursday afternoon, in preparation for their bouts next Monday night, are Johnny Myers, Young Woodsley, Jack Carr and Bill Pifer.

Those who would like to see Hack throw "the Boole" will be on hand Thursday afternoon to study his condition.

MARKETS

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Disappointing crop reports from the northwest and pressure from a local professional who sold heavily influenced an irregular close of the grain market today. Wheat did not rally strongly from yesterday's drop.

Wheat closed ¼ to ¾ off. Corn was up ½ to 1c, and oats ranged from ¼ up to ¾ off. Provisions were quiet.

CHARITY SEEKER STORED SUPPLIES

Basement Full of Eatables When Investigated by Suspicious Givers

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 29.—The gray wolf, so John Pallato said, was so close to the door of his home, at No. 113 Brewster street, that living there was like being a character in a Jack London novel. Oh! it was heartrending! the story he told. Starvation just around the corner. No bread. No flour. No meat—why, his family would have forgotten what meat looked like if it weren't for the packers' advertisements on the signboards.

Yes, it was a terrible tale. The police, listening to him, thought of Arctic explorers who dined on fillet mignon made of the soles of their own boots.

They thought of the poor fruit dealer who had no bananas. And they fed John Pallato. They sent great baskets of meat and vegetables to his home. But always John came back for more.

So it happened that the police began to suspect they were feeding a rathole. A social worker was sent to investigate. Stored in the Pallato cellar he found:

Seventeen bags of flour. Sixty-five cans of tomatoes. Twenty-five pounds of coffee.

And several crates of assorted canned goods.

John, it developed, had a perfectly good job at which he was working daily. And the family of John were fat-cheeked and healthy. There will be no more playing Lady Bountiful to John Pallato by the Syracuse Charities department.

Iowa Supplies Sixth Of Chicago's Butter

WATERLOO, Ia., Aug. 29.—Iowa supplied the Chicago market with 16.2 per cent of all the butter received in the Windy City last month. A total of 3,800,212 pounds of Iowa butter was shipped to Chicago in June, according to the records of the Iowa Creamery Secretaries and Managers' association.

In 1922 the state's creameries brought $48,462,805 into the state from the sale of butter in markets outside Iowa. New York received 43,439,000 pounds of Iowa butter last year and Chicago 40,735,000 pounds.

BAR HEARS DAVIS' PLEA FOR WORLD COURT PANACEA

Ex-Ambassador to Great Britain Wants America Among Participants

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 29.—The American Bar association opened its annual convention here this morning with the annual address of the president, John W. Davis of New York, former ambassador to Great Britain, who declared that any attempt to limit the power of the supreme court in passing on the constitutionality of laws was "an attack on our theory of government under a written constitution."

Mr. Davis made a plea for participation by America in the world court.

Fifteen hundred lawyers from all parts of the United States attended the opening session, including three justices of the United States supreme court, headed by Chief Justice Taft, Secretary of State Hughes and other notables of the bar and bench. Hughes is mentioned for the presidency of the association.

Opposed to Hughes

Former United States Senator J. H. Lewis of Illinois is leading a faction of Democratic party lawyers who will oppose the election of Hughes on the ground that one holding an official position such as Hughes should not lead the bar body, and that Hughes is a potential presidential candidate. Other candidates for the presidency with considerable following are Robert E. L. Saner of Dallas, Tex., and Silas Strawn of Chicago.

Former Governor Charles Whitman of New York and Justices Sanford and Pierce Butler of the United States supreme court are among those who will speak.

The association is to hear and fresh out a large number of committee reports on important legal and public matters during the session, including the California Japanese problem and the growth of radicalism.

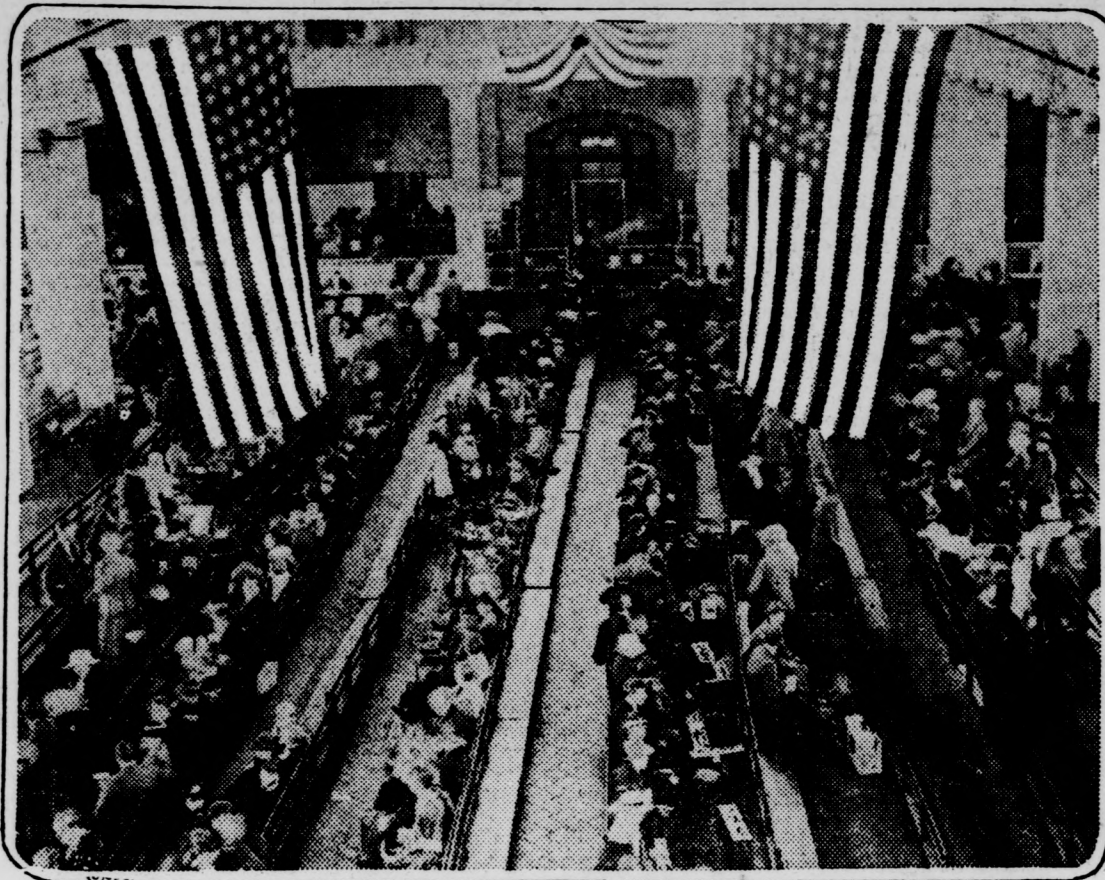

SELL POWER BONDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—Southern Sierras Power company has been authorized by the railroad commission to issue and sell at not less than $8 per cent of par value, plus accrued interest, $207,000 of its series "B" first and refunding mortgage 6 per cent gold bonds, due January 1, 1965, and to use the proceeds thereof to pay the cost of additions, extensions and betterments.

Dr. Estock Building House in Woodlands

Dr. F. A. Estock, a bookseller whose shop at 206 West Broadway is a gathering place of literary and artistic people, is building a beautiful five-room stucco home on his 75x143 foot lot at 1616 North Del Valle avenue, Verdugo Woodlands.

While building the new home, Dr. and Mrs. Estock and their three children, Misses Pauline and Jacqueline and Master Robert, are living in a small house on the rear of their property.

A feature of the location is that a running stream goes by the door. Dr. Estock has plans for making this stream a beauty spot as distinctive as anything in Glendale, with goldfish, tadpoles and many other varieties of finny denizens therein.

Set Dedication Date For Redwoods Grove

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 29.—State Forester M. B. Pratt announced today that the grove of giant redwoods near Orick, Humboldt county, which was recently dedicated to the state by Mrs. Zipperer of Glendale, will be dedicated Sunday afternoon, September 2. The grove contains 166 acres.

Tanker Cripples Back To Port, Leaking Badly

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—The tanker "Hoven," with 35 persons aboard was proceeding back to San Pedro today, after striking a submerged rock near San Benito island, off the Lower California coast, according to word received here by radio.

A number of vessels in the vicinity picked up the distress signals of the injured vessel and proceeded to it. The tanker Hoven and the freighter Montpelier were comparatively close when the first S. O. S. calls were broadcast. First reports from the "Hoven" stated she was leaking badly. A message from Captain Roberts of the "Hoven" stated the ship had gone on a rock, and though his ship was taking water rapidly, he thought it could reach San Pedro safely. San Benito island is approximately 350 miles from here.

Storm Wrecks Ancient Pecan Tree in Ohio

GUYSVILLE, Ohio, Aug. 29.—Recent storms have partly wrecked the very large pecan tree, planted on the Martin Mansfield farm, near here, about 75 years ago. It is the only tree of the kind in this section of Ohio.

SECRETARY HITS BACK AT GEDDES

Fault of Ellis Island Lies With British Permitting Ineligible Emigration

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Replying to the latest British attack on conditions at the immigrant station at Ellis Island, Secretary Davis of the Department of Labor, declares that "the immigrants themselves" were responsible for most of the troubles complained of.

This fact, Mr. Davis says, was perfectly apparent from the report of Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, recently submitted at London.

It must be kept in mind, the Secretary adds, that those who are detained at Ellis Island are held because they are in one way or another in this country in "violation of the law," while those who are clearly admissible are passed through rapidly.

"It is plain," he says, "that the comforts of British nationals coming to this country could be improved if the British government would undertake to insist that only individuals who are admissible under our laws were allowed to leave for America. British officials are generally familiar with our immigration laws, and it would be a simple matter for them to determine before a British national starts for this country whether he is admissible."

Secretary Davis says he is convinced that conditions at Ellis Island are superior generally to the "conditions in the steerage of the great majority of the vessels which bring the immigrants to America."

600 Delegates Coming To 1924 Synod Session

The Presbyterian Synod, which this year was held at Asilomar, August 14 to 24, will make its headquarters in Glendale in the summer of 1924, according to Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of The Glendale Presbyterian church. When it is considered that this year's Synod drew to Asilomar over 600 delegates, from all over California and elsewhere in the west, it is seen that selection of this city for next year's conference is a matter of which Glendale should be truly proud, in the opinion of Rev. Edmonds and others.

The exact date of the Synod has not yet been set, but will probably be toward the latter part of July.

Perry Gaskills Home, And No Place to Go!

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Gaskill, of the Dietrich Realty company, 133 1/2 South Brand boulevard, have returned to Glendale after a vacation trip at Santa Monica and elsewhere, to be faced with the prospect of "house-hunting."

In order to avoid just this predicament, they had arranged to buy a place on North Brand boulevard, and had also arranged to temporarily rent a place at another location, in the event the former deal failed to materialize. They were unprepared, however, to find that both deals had fallen through—and are now considering the prospect of spending the winter parked in their car outside the office!

Sleuths Solve Trick Of Chinese Burglar

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 29.—The proverbial wile of the "heaven Chinese" was demonstrated again here recently when detectives arrested one of three laundymen who kept their money in a community safe.

To make it look like an "outside" job Sam Chong, the sleuths aver, hammered the lock off the safe via the combination and removed $1,270 in currency.

Wayfarer's Author to Lecture in Glendale

Dr. James E. Crowther, author of The Wayfarer, the pageant that is to be given at the Coliseum in Los Angeles, will be here tomorrow, Thursday, August 30, to deliver a lecture at the auditorium of the Tuesday Afternoon club at 8 p. m., in which he will outline the theme that forms the basis of The Wayfarer. Dr. Crowther will be accompanied by Edgar L. Webster, the general manager of The Wayfarer, and it is hoped that a large attendance will be on hand at the Tuesday Afternoon club to hear Dr. Crowther's lecture.

During the course of the pageant special nights will be set aside for various cities adjacent to Los Angeles, the first night, September 8, being Glendale night, when Mrs. Charles Temple, 145 North Orange, will enact the part of Columbia.

CHICAGO WRINGS BARGAIN PRICES FROM WET ONES

Justice Blind, Deaf, Dumb,
But Organized to Deal
Dry Sentences

By ROLAND KREBS
For International News Service

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Justice
so long blind, today became deaf and dumb as well.

Under a new arrangement of assessing fines in the court of Judge Joseph N. Labay, announced today, it pays to be an experienced drunkard. The judge hangs a heavy package on mild tipplers and lets those who drink themselves stiff, off with a smile.

An experienced drunkard, of course, is one who can still stand up, no matter how badly drenched. The judge is fining any lady or gentleman only $1 and costs if he or she be goggle-eyed, but still able to stand up.

Of Course, You Know
If they aren't such good right and left hand drinkers and are forced to sit down in court, Judge Labay throws the harpoon into them for $3 and costs.

If they are only a little lath-ered, but so unaccustomed to it that they have to be wheeled on litters, they're fined $5 while lying down.

Of the first 100 paraded before his honor, most were soaked the full $5 and costs.

Now, where's the justice of that? If we're going to be fined according to our postures, isn't it reasonable to expect a scale, like this:

Take Your Choice
Standing on one foot, 98 cents marked down from able-to-stand-up $1.

Leaning on the bailiff with one hand $1.19.

With two hands $1.27.
Draped over the bar (court, not saloon) $1.33.

Flat on the back $5, even if done gracefully, $5.49 if done awkwardly.

If unconscious $10 and costs.
But if a fellow is unconscious,
what does he care?

Justice ought to let the stuff alone, really.

Southland Beauties Aid Fashion Exhibit

With nine representative girls and young matrons of Southland cities acting as amateur man-nins, the annual fall fashion show at Forest Home, just held, proved an immense success, according to Frank Culver, resort proprietor, who announces a horse show to be held at the mountain playground on September 2.

Some 400 guests at the show marveled at the display of Parisian bathing suits, imported lingerie, smart afternoon frocks and New York evening dresses.

Culver reports that the travel mountainward continues heavy, and expects all fall records for attendance at his place to be shattered.

Glendale Sanitarium Board Re-elected By Adventists At Their Annual Conference

SETTING forth the development of the past year and predicting even greater growth for the future, "Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital Day" yesterday at the camp meeting of the Southern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists in Los Angeles proved to be the feature of the annual gathering.

At the morning service hour,
11 o'clock, there was a meeting of the association of the church people, a chartered organization controlling the Sanitarium and Hospital property. Elder W. M.
Adams, president of the Southern California Conference and also ex-officio chairman of the Sanitarium and Hospital board of directors, presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers.

In addition to reports on the Sanitarium and Hospital administration, there was an election of directors, resulting in the re-election of the old board, and also action amending the by-laws to harmonize with advice given by leading business interests as to putting the administration on a more practical basis.

The board of directors as re-elected, includes Elder W. M.
Adams, ex-officio chairman; W.
D. Salisbury, C. E. Kimlin, secretary; B. M. Emerson, Elder G.
W. Reaser, Dr. H. G. Westphal and Dr. W. J. Johnson.

Full of interesting facts of development, the reports given by Dr. Westphal, medical superintendent, C. E. Kimlin, financial manager, Elder R. W. Munson, chaplain, and Mrs. Daisy D. Harris, head nurse, of the Sanitarium and Hospital staff, all predicted great things for the institution in the new building on the nearby hilltop.

They Give Figures
Dr. Westphal stated that during the past year 2,050 persons had been treated at the Sanitarium and Hospital, that this was an increase of several hundred over the previous year;
that 333 babies were born in the maternity ward during the year, showing an increase of over a half over the previous year.

Mr. Kimlin's report showed that the income during the year was approximately $250,000, and that in the new building this figure will doubtless be doubled.

Elder R. W. Munson gave an inspirational report on his work dealing with the spiritual life of employees and patients at the institution, and Mrs. Harris reported on the nurses' activity.

Mrs. Harris is most enthusiastic over the prospects for development in the new building and anticipates that more nurses will be in training than ever before.

Pastor Parmele Preaches
"Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and today, and forever" was the theme of the discourse of Pastor R. W. Parmele, of Glendale, at the camp meeting last night.
His text was from Hebrews 13:8, and the speaker presented the position that Christ has existed as the same Jesus before the world was created, that He was the agent for God in the creation of the numerous inhabited worlds, including the one we inhabit. He took the position that Lucifer, an exalted angel, rebelled against the government of God, when the plan was laid for the creation of this world, and that then and

POLICE CAR FUND LOST IN BUDGET

First Casualty of Council's Chopping Expenses Is Seriously Funny

The Glendale police department almost became obliged to chase crooks in garbage wagons.

Following a marked hesitancy on the part of the City Council Monday night to appropriate funds for the maintenance of the two automobiles utilized by the police department, Chief J. D. Fraser is reported to be conferring upon the subject with Mack Bennett, also Pete Kasapian, manager of the City Rubbish Company.

A motion made by Councilman
W. A. Horn that $2,800 should be taken from the unappropriated reserve fund for the maintenance of these cars, which through an oversight were not provided for in the budget, was denounced by Councilman Sam Davis. He called attention to the fact that this fund, which only amounts to $8,570, should be kept for emergencies.

As a solution of the problem,
the Council voted to defray the expenses of these machines for the next six months through an appropriation of $2,800.

In addition, two other expenditures were approved. One involves the purchase of an adding machine at a cost of $200 for the city engineering department and the other the purchase of a Ford roadster from J. O. Muldrow, Jr., of Greenville, S. C., for $50.

there the plan for the redemption of this world to be was laid.
"Thus it is," said the speaker,
"that he is 'the lamb slain from the foundation of the world.'"
Rev. 13:8, and that God chose 'us in Him before the foundation of the world.'

The speaker then produced texts of scripture for the purpose of showing that Christ was the creator of this world, and hence the maker of the Sabbath day, and thus it becomes in a special sense "the Christian Sabbath."

"He is the same Jesus today, and we will find Him still the 'friend of sinners.' He is our elder brother, and stands before the Father pleading our cases."
"And He is coming to take us all home with Him, to live with Him through the ceaseless ages of eternity. That is the reason we love His appearing, and are watching with such glad anticipation for every indication of His approach. May that gladsome day not be long deferred."

G. U. H. S. PREPARES TO OPEN SEPT. 11

Double Shift and Snappy
Class Work Scheduled
By Principal Moyse

Everything is in readiness for the reception of freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors Tuesday, September 11, according to an announcement this morning from Glendale Union High school.

Owing to the necessity of opening school in the present plant, which was overcrowded last year, it will be necessary to divide the school day into half-day sessions until the completion of the new building.

Under class students will attend from 7:30 a. m. until 1 p.
m. and upper class students will attend from 12 until 4:30.

Each session will be divided into six 50-minute periods. Forty minutes of each period will be devoted to recitation and the balance to explanation of the following day's lesson.

No advance registrations are to be received next week, according to a definite ruling made by Principal George U. Moyse. In registering, upper class students are expected to come in the morning and under class students in the afternoon.

Students transferring from other high schools are requested to wait until Thursday, September 13, to register.

EUREKA HOST TO 700 LEGIONNAIRES

Barbecue, Boxing, Dancing
On Program Today;
Shortridge Speaks

EUREKA, Cal., Aug. 29.—The second day of the fifth state annual convention of the American Legion here was given over Tuesday to entertainment of Legionnaires of whom there are approximately 700 in attendance.

The veterans assembled beneath the giant redwoods at Dyer-ville flats on the Eel river, where they were highly entertained by the Eureka Chamber of Commerce and the lumbering interests of that region. The program included band concerts and high jinks in one of the world's most famous redwood groves. The day's festivities were concluded by a barbecue. In the evening the entertainment consisted of boxing and wrestling contests under the direction of the Eureka post of the Legion, followed by a dance and reception of the Legionnaires by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

This morning's convention program included reports from the chairmen of various committees, including that of the rehabilitation committee by Chairman A.
E. Graupner; James K. Fisk, of Americanization; John H. Brennan on legislation; Captain H. J.
Nichols on California veterans' welfare board; Louis T. Grant, United States veterans' board of the twelfth district.

To Play Ball
Features of Wednesday afternoon will be a championship baseball game and the grand parade of the "40 and 8," playground organization of the Legion.

United States Senator Samuel Shortridge, speaking at the initial session of the convention on Monday, pledged his support for an adjusted compensation bill for former service men. Child labor problems and immigration were also subjects taken up by the senator.

Some disappointment was manifest by the Legionnaires in the inability of National Commander Alvin Owsley to be present. A letter from Commander Owsley was read by State Senator Seth Millington.

An address of welcome was made by Mayor O. D. Lord of Eureka.

During yesterday's session the entire membership stood in silence for one minute in tribute to their fallen comrades.

5000 Dresses Go Like Wildfire in Webb's Big Sale

GINGHAM DRESS DAY,
yesterday at the H. S.
Webb store on North
Brand boulevard, was featured by a record crowd of shoppers, gathered on the sidewalk from the store door to the curb, waiting for the opening of the store at 9 o'clock, brought there by exclusive advertising in The Glendale Evening News.

Attractive gingham dresses in all styles and colors were on sale and by noon the entire lot of 5000 had been sold to shoppers and by telephone and mail orders.
It was said to be one of the biggest sales events in the history of Glendale.

"Fill Up M'Can!" Chirps Motorist As Gas War Brings Price Cuts

War may be all General Sherman said it was, but then he never drove an auto in the midst of a gas war. Motorists throughout the country quite agree that war—especially a gas war that brings healthy slashes in prices—is just exactly what Sherman said. In fact, as far as American motorists are concerned, they would just as soon see the tilt between the Standard and the independent oil companies continue indefinitely. Prices are six cents a gallon and up.

Billy Goat Gets Billie's Goat in His Ruminations

SOMEWHERE in Edendale, according to gossip reaching Glendale, there is a goat with a keen relish for grease paint, hand mirrors and face powder.

Perhaps you have noted such a bewhiskered billy as you commute from Glendale to Los Angeles, or maybe your nose knows.

At any rate this ruminant discovered Billie Rhodes' makeup box on location where the little comedienne was working last week on the production, "Leave It to Goetz." And the goat devoured its contents.

"I don't want to be mean to anybody's Billy," said Billie of the films, "but I hope it gives him a tummy ache."

Country Club Tract Program for Sunday

On Sunday, September 2, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, another Ford touring car will be given away at Country Club Highlands, states Marvin Smith, of Glendale, sales manager. The ten-piece negro jazz orchestra from the Egyptian Village cafe will play.
Cash prizes will be donated to the winners of many contests, Mr.
Smith states. Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson, who is noted for his fine tenor voice, will sing.

Country Club Highlands lies along Pico boulevard, midway between Los Angeles and Santa Monica. It is being subdivided by A. G. Smith, of Glendale, and Senator Benjamin C. Sheldon, of Hollywood. Marvin Smith reports that more than $50,000 worth of lots in the Pico boulevard property were sold last Sunday.

Police Investigating Rich Heir's Murder

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Police today began a thorough investigation into the mysterious death of John Sutphen, member of a prominent south New Jersey family.
They were endeavoring to determine whether he was murdered or killed himself in his apartment.
Sutphen inherited a fortune a week ago, said to be more than $100,000.

An autopsy showed that cyanide of potassium caused the death.
Sutphen was found dead on a couch in the drawing room. He had reached his apartment about an hour and a half before his body was found. The body was fully dressed except for the coat, and it was clutched in the right hand.

Over Billion Loaned To Farmers, Claim

CHICAGO, Aug. 29. — More than a billion dollars has been loaned American farmers since 1916 by the American Association of Joint Stock and Land Banks, it was announced here today at the fifth yearly meeting of the association.

That sum did not take into consideration the years 1918 and 1919 when no funds were lent because of the war, it was explained.
Many of the bankers, who came from all over the republic, said
"dirt" farmers were doing better than ever before and that the farmers' financial plight is more apparent than real.

GASOLINE CHEAP IN GLENDALE AS COMPANIES WAR

Standard Cuts Out Scrip to Compete With Others;
Six Cents Low Price

The prevailing price of gas in Glendale today is 15 cents a gallon, following Standard's abandonment of the scrip-book plan and establishment of the 15-cent rate for everyone.

Many local independent stations are selling for 13 cents, some for 12 cents, while the local Ford and Lincoln dealers offer customers gas at 11 cents a gallon.

In Los Angeles the prevailing independent rate is 12 cents, although certain refineries claim to be making a profit by allowing their product to be retailed as low as 6 cents a gallon.

A gasoline tax will soon be in effect and it is presumed that this, too, will be absorbed by the refiners in their efforts to promote a demand as great as supply.

In event of a coal strike it is expected crude oil prices will go up as distillate will be used for fuel in the east. This, in turn, will boost the price of gasoline,
it is predicted by those conversant with the situation here.

TODAY—Bathing in Chicago; Ukeles Not Yet Dead.

By ROLAND KREBS
For International News Service

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—In some cities visitors go to the art museums. In others the public parks attract them. Not a few are drawn by natural beauties.

In Chicago visitors flock to the bathing beaches that front the city from end to end.

Bathing in Lake Michigan is not an amusement or sport with Chicago. It's an occupation, particularly on hot Sundays. The real reason it attracts the attention of visitors is because it's done so differently than in most summer resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brush, for example, are riding atop a Sheridan road motor coach. The costly homes on the Gold Coast thrill them. So does Lincoln park. But, of a sudden, they get the thrill of their lives.

They see a pretty miss in flawless bathing costume, wearing besides only sandals and a silken dressing gown, walking through the streets as big as you please. She appears to have stepped right from her boudoir. She has walked blocks through the streets in her bathing suit and no one thinks anything of it—no one except Mr. and Mrs. Brush, that is.

While they are trying to determine if they really were not dreaming, they spy a man strutting along the drive in a bathrobe. As the beaches are approached whole families are found parading toward the lake in their scanty dress.

Some folks think it's positively indecent, but usually no one minds them.

Persons who live within walking distance of the water put on their bathing suits in their homes to avoid the bother of renting a locker at the municipal beaches. Most of the city spends all of Sunday on the beach. Families come with packets of food, the Sunday newspapers and musical instruments and have parties.

One of the most popular musical instruments is the ukelele, which not so long ago appeared to have fallen into utter disrepute. The smart thing to do is to pack one along and know all the newest airs. At the first pick of the strings crowds gather around the player and oh! how they spread out "Louisville Lou" and the "Beale Street Mama."

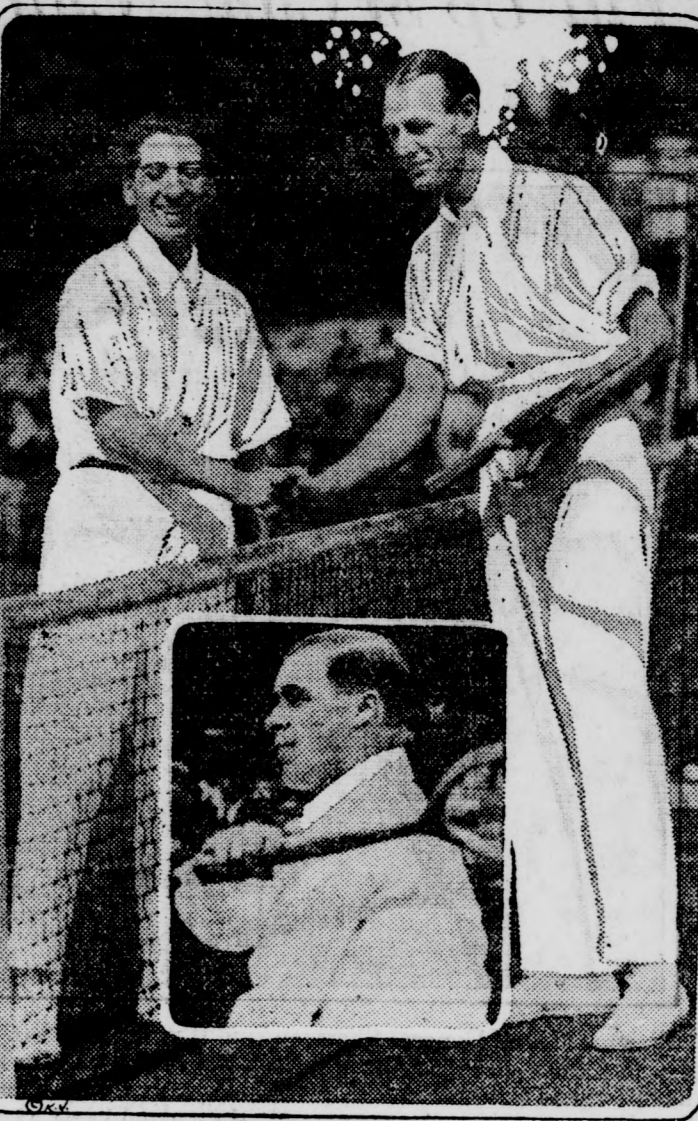

Drug stores do a thriving business all along the lake shore. They keep a little paregoric and a bottle or two of liniment on their shelves for appearances' sake, and then turn the rest of the space over to bathing suits, bathing caps, water wings, ear plugs, rubber balls, tin buckets and shovels for the youngsters, sandals, hose, cold cream for sunburn and even towels.

Everything along the waterfront is informal. Dipping bathers saunter into the drug stores and lean their wet persons against the soda fountain while they drink malted milk, eat ice cream and nibble hot dogs.

Each drug store has a negro boy standing by with a mop to swab down after each batch of customers.

That's how bathing is done in Chicago.

Australia to Meet America

Capt. James O. Anderson of Australian team, right, shaking hands with Rene Lacoste of French team after final victory, and, inset, Bill Tilden, who will be star of U. S. team in cup challenge round.

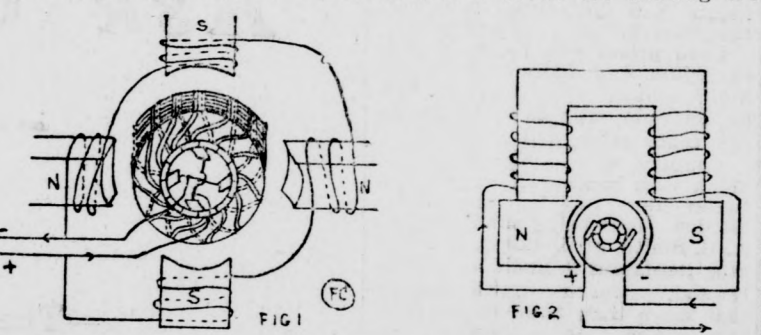

It will be the dashing, slashing play of the Australians against the wicked driving and perfect placing of the Americans in the challenge round for the Davis tennis cup this year. The team from the Antipodes earned the right to meet the U. S. team by eliminating the French quartet in the final round. Capt. James O. Anderson of the Anzac team was the star of the matches with the French and is counted to lead the attack of the Australians against the Americans.

RADIO

BY FRANK CHAPMAN

Figure 1 shows a 4 pole, shunt wound motor. The field coils are wound in series so that the strength of the magnetizing force will be the same in each pole piece. This insures uniform pole strength. The iron core of the armature is made up of thin pieces of iron, whether it is a motor or a generator, the thickness depending on the frequency of the machine. The pole pieces are altered by a north and then a south. There are four brushes, two of them being connected.

Every dynamo produces alternating current within its armature but this current can be rectified at the commutator into a current flowing in one direction. If slip or collector rings are used, it will go forth just the way it is generated. If the armature coils were led to a commutator, we would then produce direct current. In large machines the commutator have 100 or more segments and the armature consists of many loops of wire wound over a laminated core.

There are two principal types of armatures, the ring wound and the drum wound. For radio work the ring wound is used but very little. The drum wound type is shown in Figure 1. This shows all of the wire placed in slots in the iron core. The distinguishing feature of the drum winding is that two branches of each turn of wire lie under the adjacent field poles.

In a previous lesson you were told that voltage of a coil in inductive relation to another one

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE FEATHER GAME

One evening after supper Uncle Wiggily said to Nurse Jane: "I think I shall go for a little walk. May I have the pleasure of your company, Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy?"

"Thank you," replied the muskrat lady housekeeper, "but I shall stay on the porch, as I expect Mrs. Wibblywobble, the lady duck."

So Uncle Wiggily hopped away from the hollow stump bungalow all by himself.

"Be careful not to stay out so late that the Bob Cat catches you!" warned Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy.

"I'll try not to," promised the rabbit uncle.

It was a pleasant summer evening, with the sun just going to bed on a soft, fleecy blanket of clouds in the west.

"Everything is beautiful!" thought Uncle Wiggily, as he slowly twinkled his pink nose.

And just then he heard a voice say: "Come brothers and sisters, let us play our regular evening feather game."

"Hum! I wonder who that is?" thought Uncle Wiggily. Then, looking up, he saw, sitting on the branch of a tree, a number of birds with notched tails. "Ah, the swallows," murmured the bunny to himself. "They always fly at evening time. I shall watch them."

Uncle Wiggily sat down on a stump beneath the tree and, soon one of the swallows called down to the rabbit, asking:

"Have you a feather that we may use in playing our game?"

"I am sorry to say I have not," answered Mr. Longears. "I wear a coat of fur—not feathers. But if you would like a loose fur—"

"Thank you," twittered one of the swallows, "but we need a feather that will float in the air. Ah, I see one!" he cried, and, darting down, close to the ground, the bird picked up in his bill a tiny white feather. It had blown from the breast of Grandfather Goosey Gander that day. But, having many more feathers, Grandpa Goosey did not mind losing one.

"Now for our game!" twittered the swallows.

"That sort of a game can you play with one feather?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Do you tickle one another with it?"

"Not exactly," answered the swallow who had picked up the feather. "But if you watch you shall see."

The bird, carrying the feather in its bill, darted through the air. Suddenly it let go the white, fluffy thing.

"Oh, you've dropped it!" cried Uncle Wiggily. But before the feather could fall to the ground, another swallow skimmed swiftly through the air and caught it in its bill just as a boy catches a baseball.

And then the feather was carried up in the air and dropped. But each time, before it could touch the ground, one of the swallows darted after it and picked it up. One after another of the birds caught the feather on the wing.

"This is our feather game—we play it each night," said the largest swallow.

"It is a very nice game," said Uncle Wiggily.

"Yes, and I know another nice game!" growled a voice behind the rabbit. "It is the game of nibbling your ears!" And out popped the bad Bob Cat. He caught the bunny in both claws and held him tightly.

"Oh, dear!" sighed the rabbit. One of the swallows heard him.

"Come, brothers and sisters!" twittered this swallow. "We must save our friend Uncle Wiggily!"

"How can we?" asked another bird.

"We'll tickle the Bob Cat on his nose with the feather! We'll tickle his nose so much that he'll have to let go of Uncle Wiggily to scratch and then the rabbit can get away. Come! Tickle the Bob Cat with our game feather!"

One after another of the birds darted toward the Bob Cat, carrying the feather. They darted by the bad chap, lightly tickling his nose with the feather. At first the Bob Cat would not let Uncle Wiggily go. But, after awhile, his nose began to tickle and itch so much that he roared out:

"Oh, I must scratch! I simply must scratch myself!" So he raised his paws to scratch his nose and, of course, he let go of the rabbit.

"Run, Uncle Wiggily! Run!" twittered the swallows, and the bunny ran safely home to his bungalow, not having his ears nibbled.

So, you see, it was a good thing the swallows played the feather game, and, if the egg beater doesn't dust salt on the sugar cookie and then give it a bath in the cat's cradle, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the pepper hash.

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAYS NEWS

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAYS NEWS

REP. ISAAC SHERWOOD

Brig. Gen. Isaac Sherwood, representative to congress from the Ninth Ohio district, recently celebrated his eighty-eighth birthday by taking in the Grand Circuit races at Toledo, O.

"Fit as a fiddle, still," he says to himself. Isaac Sherwood was born August 13, 1835.

He was educated at Antioch college and the Ohio law school at Cleveland. His career, both in military and civil life has been a distinguished one.

He entered the army April 16, 1861, and served in West Virginia as a private for four months.

He was commissioned first lieutenant in the Eleventh Ohio volunteer infantry and then was appointed adjutant, which position he filled during the Buell campaign in Kentucky. He received the appointment of major early in 1863 and participated in Morgan's campaign as well as that of East Tennessee.

A year later he was appointed lieutenant colonel. He fought in a number of famous battles of the Civil War including those of Resaca, Burnt Hickory, Pine Mountain, Lost Mountain, Kenesaw Mountain, Peach Tree Creek, Atlanta and Duck River.

"For gallant and meritorious services" in the battle of Resaca, he was promoted to the rank of brigadier general of volunteers, and date from February 27, 1865. At the close of the war, he resigned his commission and left the service.

Gen. Sherwood was Ohio's secretary of state from 1869 to 1873 and was a member of the Forty-third congress, from the Sixth Ohio district. He was elected to the Sixtieth congress, and up to the present time, has held office almost continually. His most recent election to this position was in 1922, when he defeated Congressman Chalmers for re-election.

BAMBINO IN BATTLE OF BATS

Heavy Hitters Going Good At N. Y. And Detroit

Babe Ruth, left, and Harry Heilmann

By NORMAN E. BROWN.
The merriest battle for the league batting honors that has been staged in the American circuit for many moons is now on. Order your ringside seats early.

In this corner we have Harry Heilmann of Detroit.

In this corner, Babe Ruth, New York's favorite.

Let's go.
Ruth started the season with but one end in view—to retrieve himself for his failure to win the home run honors last season. But in climbing back into his old time form he found himself swatting the ball so consistently that his average began to mount near the leaders.

Ruth is now leading Heilmann by 15 points.
Two years ago Heilmann, Ruth and Cobb staged the same kind of a battle. That year Heilmann finished first with a .394 average and Ruth 16 points behind him. Between them stood Cobb.

Last year Heilmann lost the batting honors to George Sisler, but finished with a .356 average. Ruth hit only .315.

This year's battle is doubly interesting because of the fact that Heilmann is the first right-hander in many campaigns to grab a title or hold the lead. Ruth represents the off-side hitters. As matters stand now they will decide for a time at least, the question of supremacy of the rights and lefts.

FIRPO IS GROUCHY, TRAINERS AFRAID

Argentine 'King' in His Own Camp, Does Nothing But Little Track Work

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 29.—Those concerned with the training of Luis Angel Firpo for his bout with Jack Dempsey today were devoting their best efforts to bring the Argentine out of the temperamental grouch which yesterday gave evidence of seriously interfering with the challenger's work. They were compelled to resort to tact in order to attain their ends.

Firpo is king in his own camp, and if he wants to work or loaf, his "subjects" merely shrug their shoulders and wish it were not so. Apparently the only thing the challenger does with real pleasure is to get up at six and do some road work on the boardwalk. He likes to do this and leave his companions half a mile behind in a six-mile jaunt. When the trip is over, the others find him seated contentedly on the walk ready to josh the others unmercifully for their lack of endurance.

Firpo is scheduled to go through his regular training stunts today.

In Dempsey's Camp
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Jack Dempsey stated while engaging in another day of loafing, that the training life was the toughest of all. He said he always feared he was liable to go stale. He is anxious for September 14 to roll around.

GREB'S ODDS SINK WITH HIS WEIGHT

Champion to Battle Johnny Wilson Friday; Latter Sure of Himself

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service
NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Large because Harry Greb seemed to be reaching the middleweight limit by methods that might give a few points to the exponents of the Spanish inquisition, the odds on his championship bout with Johnny Wilson Friday have shortened at a rather alarming rate during recent days. When the match was first made, Greb was figured a favorite at 3 to 1 or better. Today he is rated at 9 to 5, with Wilson money so plentiful that it is altogether possible the men will enter the ring with the odds cut to nothing.

Greb's fight against weight has been a heroic one. He is not the type that reduces easily and it is no Masonic secret that 160 pounds on the afternoon of a fight is shooting dangerously close to his physical limit.

Run to a Shadow
It is believed that weight weakness may beat Greb, if Wilson doesn't. The Pittsburgh entry is reported to have reduced seven pounds in the first two days of training by running himself to a shadow. Since then he has centered himself upon holding his own in his fight against his body. It is nothing for Greb to top off a seven mile run with an hour or so of the usual training ritual, followed by as much as 14 rounds of boxing. Even Philadelphia Jack O'Brien has found occasion to remonstrate with the Pittsburgher.

"Makes Him Fast"
"Red" Mason, the latter's manager, has other ideas on the subject.

"Greb never worked differently," he declares. "Harry can make any kind of weight and be strong. Hard work makes him fast."

Meantime Wilson's air of quiet confidence while training at Summit, N. J., has been impressive. The champion, alleged or otherwise, claims he has no illusions about himself but that he figures he has Greb in the bag.

FIGHT RESULTS

AT BOSTON—Frankie Genaro, New York flyweight title-holder, defeated Bobby Wolgast, Philadelphia, ten rounds.

AT COVINGTON, Ky.—Sammy Mondell, Rockford, Ill., and K. O. Mars, Cincinnati, fought ten rounds, draw.

Swedish merchant fleet numbers 2917 ships.

TAGGING ALL BASES

Alexander was as generous with base hits as a banker with his money and easily defeated the Giants, 4 to 1. It was the Cubs' final appearance in New York this season. The victory allowed the Reds to step up within three games of the league lead.

The Senators came from the rear to make three runs in the ninth and beat the Tigers, 10 to 9.

CHINESE OPPOSE BRITAIN'S PLANS

Disclosure of Plot to Gain
Wider Sphere Arouses
French and Japs

PEKING, China, Aug. 29.—Alarm over the "tremendous" British plans for foreign control of Chinese railways is attaining serious proportions throughout China. It is the prevailing belief in more conservative quarters that over-zealous propaganda has disclosed the British plans much too early and that as a result of the hostile Chinese attitude Great Britain is now trying to "smoke screen" her forceful demands for foreign suspension of the native rail lines.

The British plans are opposed not only by Peking, but also by Japan and France, as these two countries fear an extension of Great Britain's sphere of influence in the Orient. French and Japanese opposition, it is believed by Chinese officials here, will probably be supported by the United States pursuant to America's policy to "foreign non-interference in China." Furthermore, Peking government officials say, the British plans are not practical and could never be successfully established.

Agitation among foreigners for outside supervision of China's railroads grew out of the Shantung train kidnapping outrage several months ago, resulting in the mistreatment of foreign missionaries.

BANS BOXING SHOW

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—Chief of Police August Vollmer today recommended to the Police commission that the permit for boxing bouts for the "Madison Square garden," be revoked. 4-YEAR-OLD GIRL READS BACKWARD

Deciphers Prints From Any

Timetables

By ROLAND KREBS
For International News Service
CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—As it is, the parents of Marion Smales, who is four years old and lives in Zion City, are pretty well pleased with her. But, when she is twenty-one years old, they're bound to begin wishing she had been a boy so she could be a railroad conductor. By that time she'll be so smart she'll be able to skim through a time-table as though it were fairy primer literature.

Marion now can decipher nearly anything in printing. With a little more study she will know exactly what men who composed income tax and passport blanks were talking about. The erudite Miss Smales is able to accompany almost anyone in study. They are about to begin the Revelations in the Bible. Where some children do well to flounder forward through such baffling stuff as "Now, Rollo," said our little hero's mother, "you must be a well-behaved boy and do just as Jonas tells you," Marion can pick up the Declaration of Independence and read "necessary becomes it events human of course the in when."

When one gathers that Marion comes home from school, pores over the New York curb list upside down and reads the box scores from right to left and glances triangularly at the vital statistics, there are some persons, no doubt, who will sniff and say: "Well, what of it? What's the good of that?"

There's just this to be said of it, sires and mesdames: Marion never has to turn to the back of a book to see how the story ends, because she begins there anyway.

STATE LEADS IN STILL SEIZURES

Dry Agents Capture 3926
In Fiscal Year Enforcing Prohibition Laws

Internal revenue officers, in enforcing the prohibition laws in California, seized 3926 still worms during the last fiscal year. California leads all other states in the number of stills seized. Georgia coming next to this state with 536 stills destroyed. In the entire United States 10,203 still worms were confiscated by revenue men, of which 3926 were located in California, according to a survey completed yesterday by Collector Rex Goodell.

Not only does California lead in the number of stills seized, but, with a total of 158 automobiles confiscated, California is ahead of all states except Tennessee.

In number of arrests made for violations of the prohibition laws, New York, with 10,384,000 population, leads with 3775 arrests; to California's 3204, out of a population of 3,426,000.

It cost the government $731,282 to enforce the prohibition laws in New York and make 3775 arrests, while in California 3204 arrests were made and the government's cost of operating its prohibition force was only $168,778.

California revenue officials seized and destroyed 146,074 gallons of wine and 10,097 gallons of whiskey during the year.

HISTORIC PAPER COMES TO LIGHT

Copy of St. Joseph Gazette
Sent by Pony Express
Is Discovered

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 29.—One of the rarest and most priceless historical papers ever found in California—a copy of the St. Joseph Gazette which was brought to California by the first pony express—was unearthed in the State Library here by Harry C. Peterson, former field research worker for the library. The historic paper will be exhibited at the State Fair in connection with the pony express fete this year.

Thirteen lines in the editorial column of the newspaper tell the story:

"Through the politeness of the Express Company, we are permitted to forward, by the First Pony Express, the first and only newspaper ever transmitted from Missouri to California in eight days. The nature of the conveyance necessarily precludes our making up an edition of any considerable weight. It, however, contains a summary of the latest news received here by telegraph for some days past, from all parts of the Union. We send it in greeting to our brethren of the press in California."

The paper is dated "St. Joseph, Mo., April 2nd, 1849." How the historic paper ever reached the State Library is a mystery, as none of the library workers have any record of its arrival.

EAGLE ROCK CLUB ANNOUNCES YEAR'S PROGRAM

Women's Organization Tells Plans for Work of Coming Season

A tentative program for the Women's Twentieth Century club is announced, following a meeting of the program committee at the home of Mrs. A. G. Reilly, president, 550 East Colorado boulevard.

The music section, under the chairmanship of Mrs. L. E. Hammond, plans to add to the regular study classes a women's chorus and perhaps a mixed chorus, with open meetings once a month, devoted to singing. A paid conductor of recognized ability may be employed.

The drama section, under the chairmanship of Mrs. George Seebeg, will follow along the lines so successfully laid down last season.

Other sections will contribute to what Mrs. Reilly believes is going to be a record year. Mrs. C. A. Kirksey and Mrs. P. H. Blumert will provide two programs during January, on civic subjects with good speakers. While Miss Fanny Bailey will offer an art exhibit on February 28, open to the public. Mrs. C. M. Hensley will carry out some of her ideas along the lines of arts and crafts and Mrs. M. T. Lee will give several talks on child welfare, conducting a baby clinic.

But the most important undertaking of the Women's club during the season at hand is felt by Mrs. Reilly to be the organization of a Junior Auxiliary, "the seed of a future," as she sees it. The attention of the federation for "it will be definitely working toward the development not only of a fine type of club woman but a fine type of womanhood."

Bus Permit Refused
A permit to operate a bus line from Herman to Avenue 54 and York boulevard was refused at a recent meeting of the Board of Utilities. Two reasons were given: first, the road is in such condition that it would be dangerous to travel; and second, the revenue would not warrant or justify the traffic extension.

Social and Personal
On Friday night, August 31, and Saturday night, September 1, at the Central or Eagle Rock school, as it is now called, the Community Players will present "Three Live Ghosts," the comedy that had such a successful run in New York. The trio of live ghosts are Edmund Brady, Shirley Allen and Lawrence Slosson. Mrs. Elgie Lowry Fischer, director of Community Players, will take the role of "Old Sweetheart." "Miss Woodson" will be played by Wilda Bowlsby, "Rose Garden" by Loretta Bannister, "Lady Leicester" by Mrs. Van Lee Hood and "Briggs of Scotland Yard" by J. L. Fischer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bannister, of 243 South Sierra Vista avenue; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Richardson and daughter, Elizabeth, of 246 South Sierra Vista avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Braham and daughter, and Mrs. Louis Spaulding, are vacationing at Catalina Island.

Mrs. Roy A. Parkinson, of 163 North Highlands avenue, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Noll at Ocean Park.

Professor and Mrs. J. C. Shedd and family, of Colorado and Eddy avenues, spent last week at Hermosa Beach.

Mrs. Frederick Beach and son Bobby, of 1006 South Central avenue, are enjoying a week's outing at Bartlett's camp, Big Bear Lake.

Mrs. Bertha S. Morris and Mrs. Sarah A. Bellringer are at Catalina.

Miss Ada Carr, of 123 Grand View avenue, is on a camping trip in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobsen, with his sister and their daughter, of 2720 Rock Glen avenue, are out of town on their vacation.

ARTISTRY SHOWN IN FILM SUCCESS

Clara Kimball Young Shows Dramatic Ability in 'The Woman of Bronze'

"The Woman of Bronze" shows Clara Kimball Young in as fine a display of emotional power as she has ever exhibited. Many who saw this play on the stage, with Margaret Anglin in the lead, will make favorable comparisons. The picture is directed by King Vidor, one of the few megaphone swingers who has been able to hold his head above the tide of mediocrity that has swept his fraternity along of late.

"The Woman of Bronze" is a Harry Garson production for Metro, excellently photographed by L. William O'Connell. Joseph Wright was the art director. Hope Loring and Louis Lighton adapted the play to the screen, just as Paul Kester translated it from a French novel by Henry Kistamaecher.

Miss Young plays the role of a sculptor's wife who attempts to keep the love of her husband despite his affairs with a model who is the central figure for a great Victory monument, in a million dollar contest.

Smoking compartments are to be provided in the new wooden-winged monoplane to be used on the London-Amsterdam-Berlin route.

TUJUNGA OPENING DATE OF SCHOOLS IS SET

Pupils Will Register Sept. 7
In Preparation for Start of Term

The summer vacation in Tujunga will come to an official end on Friday, September 7, when the school children will register for the coming term. School will take up on Tuesday following, Monday being a holiday. This will give the youngsters one last breathing spell of three days into which to cram all the fun possible before taking up their work again.

Pupils will register at the schoolhouse beginning at 8 o'clock Friday morning. Principal A. E. issued the following information for the benefit of parents and pupils:

Instructs Pupils
All children should report promptly at 9 o'clock and present their names in full, birth date, names of parents or guardians, street address with house number and nearest cross street, postoffice address and telephone number. Report cards and promotion certificates must properly be presented when registering. If pupils are entering the Tujunga school this year from some other town or city and have no card or promotion certificate they should send for it immediately and have it to present on registration day. No pupil can be given an accredited standing until a report card is presented. This, of course, does not apply to beginners. Registration should not be delayed on account of a missing card, however, as it is desirable that this preliminary work be accomplished as soon as possible and where there is no card a temporary rating will be issued, pending the presentation of a report.

A kindergarten department will be maintained this year as a result of a petition circulated by Mrs. C. J. Bloore during the vacation period. Miss Jones has been assigned to this duty.

Occupancy New School
The seventh and eighth grades will occupy the unit of the new school already completed. Until now under construction is completed the school quarters will be taxed to capacity again this year.

Teachers have been assigned as follows: First grade, Mrs. Johnston; second grade, Mrs. Reiley; third grade, Mrs. Frank; fourth grade, Miss Buck; fifth grade, Miss Molitor; sixth grade, Miss Gonzalez; seventh grade, Miss Dodds and the eighth grade will be instructed by Principal Fred W. Ake.

The next regular meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of the Tujunga Community church will be held on Wednesday, September 5. Two speakers will address the meeting, one being Rev. Willis Martin, pastor of the First Methodist church of Hollywood, who will speak on "The Spirit of the Game." Dale H. Parke, a Los Angeles attorney and past president of the Los Angeles Lions' club, will give an address on "Civic Pride."

There will be music by players from Los Angeles and the usual dinner preceding the program. The dinner will be served in the church basement at 6:30.

Pays $50 Fine
Louis W. Grimm, who gave his address as 1527 East Forty-eighth street, Los Angeles, was fined $50, which he paid, by Judge Harry Chase of Glendale, following an accident on Michigan avenue east of Tujunga, in which two persons were slightly injured and two cars damaged. The charge was reckless driving.

Grimm was arrested by Deputy Constable Ed McCarty of Tujunga, and, according to the report, was driving a small car belonging to C. C. Bennett, 226 Boyd street, Los Angeles, east on the highway. The other car, driven by A. F. Hopkins of La Crescenta, approached from the opposite direction and Grimm's car crashed into it after swerving from side to side as though Grimm had lost control of it.

Taken to Hospital
Mrs. Hopkins was riding with Mr. Hopkins and was shaken up and bruised. She was taken to the Tujunga Emergency hospital and treated for bruises and cuts and later removed to her home.

The Hopkins car had the windshield and front wheels demolished and the car driven by Grimm was also badly damaged.

Grimm was under the influence of liquor at the time he was arrested and revealed the source of his supply to the arresting officer, stating that he got it in Los Angeles.

Road making work and the installation of water service mains in the Gem of Tujunga tract on Michigan avenue is nearly completed. Most of the lots have been reported sold by Smith Brothers, who are handling the subdivision. They also report the sale of the entire five-acre tract for Gary Basy. This tract was subdivided and placed on the market only two months ago.

BURBANK PLAN EXTENSION OF DRILL TRACK

Action of S. P. Will Open Up Industrial Sites for Many Concerns

Notice has been received from Southern Pacific officials that the company will extend a drill track through the J. W. Fawkes twenty-acre industrial tract, according to C. R. Smurr, Southern Pacific agent.

If authentic, this decision on the part of the railroad will enable a number of industries who have selected sites on the Fawkes property to advance their plans to the construction point.

The drill track, according to Mr. Smurr, will extend from the main line through the center of the tract, and spur tracks will be added as the demand arises. For this purpose, in addition to seventeen feet for the drill track, the owner has given the company fifteen feet on each side for spur tracks.

It is understood that work on construction of the drill track will commence at once, as officials of the railroad are anxious to open up this territory.

Returns With Husband
Miss Ella Dyksten and George Kendig, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. Dyksten, in Madison, Wis., August 14, arrived in Burbank last week and were for a few days the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Thompson, of Olive avenue. They are now located at 532 Verdugo avenue.

Mrs. Kendig is well known in Burbank and Glendale, having since last October been a clinical assistant to Dr. Roland Thompson of this city. She left here in June with Dr. and Mrs. Thompson and they were present at the wedding, as were the bride's sister and brother, Miss Maybelle and George Dyksten.

Mr. Kendig is a brother of Mrs. Elmer Thompson of this city. In a recent address before the Burbank Rotary Club Ivan Kelso, counsel for the Automobile Club of Southern California, pointed out that as high as $100,000 per month is often collected from speeders in Los Angeles county alone, and that taking it all over the United States the fortunes dumped into the municipal tills by reckless autoists is no less than staggering.

In Culver City, he said, nine speed cops have been continually on the job for many months, faithfully collecting fines from the unwary. This tribute has been enough to run the entire city government, and in style.

LA CRESCENTA REALTY BROKERS REPORT ACTIVITY

Many Sales Are Indication
Of Busy Season Ahead
For All Dealers

The Keifer home on Sycamore avenue is the latest sale reported by the office of Bruce, Cook & Talmadge. This firm has closed some very good deals in the past week including several lots and a 5-acre tract which A. E. Anderson of Glendale purchased with a view to subdividing.

Cline & Rome are also selling the earth, reporting the sale of six lots on Saturday morning and the last lots in the Luntzel tract were sold last week, though a number of re-sales are coming in to the market now.

All of the realty brokers in this section are getting busy and expect to have an exceptionally busy season, for the main boulevards are being put into excellent condition, the greatest attraction, however, being the installation of gas, which will prove a boon to all housewives.

Miss Margaret Brown and her brother Jack Brown spent Monday over on Catalina Island.

Cold in East
Letters received by the Angier family from Mr. Angier say the weather in the east is quite cold with cold winds blowing off the Great Lakes. Mr. Angier is having a short trip east to visit his old home before the fall term of school starts.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. Posen, are spending a few days at Hermosa Beach, where they have taken a cottage for their stay.

Finish Paving Street
Pennsylvania is now a paved road and is open to the public, making an easy grade to connect Honolulu avenue to the state highway at Michigan.

This gives the autoist three paved boulevards to reach Michigan avenue, being Ocean View, Los Angeles community, he said, is building a commodious city hall with the proceeds of his speed money. And many other examples were cited. "The inclination on the part of communities to make of motor vehicle laws a means of raising revenue rather than a method of protecting lives and property has been responsible for the new laws," said Mr. Kelso. "This applies particularly to the abolition of the speed trap."

The Automobile Club of Southern California, according to Mr. Kelso, was strictly neutral in the speed trap proposition, while it was pending at Sacramento.

TUJUNGA FIRE TAKES TWO TUJUNGA HOUSES

Flames Defy Fire Fighters' Efforts; Homes and Contents Lost

Fire destroyed two homes in Tujunga Monday and caused a loss of several hundred dollars to property owners.

The James Hare place on North Monte Vista boulevard was completely destroyed when fire broke out, due to a leaking oil stove. Nothing was saved except trunks and a few personal effects. The place was covered by insurance.

About 10 o'clock in the evening fire fighters were called to the Elirhart place on Glorietta street when fire of an unknown origin destroyed the house.

A piano and most of the household effects were carried out and saved. It was not learned if this place was insured.

The La Crescenta fire department responded to a call for help with a chemical truck, but the blaze was beyond control when it arrived and little could be done.
